About the college:

Muzaffar Ahmed Mahavidyalaya is situated at Salar, which is the junction of two districts, namely Murshidabad and Purba Bardhaman and it is very near to Salar Railway Station, which is directly linked with Howrah, Katwa, Berhampore and Malda by train. Salar is also well linked with Birbhum and Nadia districts by roads. The college offers Honours/Major in almost all subjects of Arts Stream including Geography and Arabic.

A newly build Hostel as well as a well equipped Computer Lab is about to start their journey within a very short period.

History of the college:

Muzaffar Ahmed Mahavidyalaya was established in 1986. The initiative was taken by a group of eminent educationalists, teachers and social workers of the locality. Government of West Bengal had approved the initiative and the institution was framed with the name of Muzaffar Ahmed, the great freedom fighter & eminent social reformer and was started its journey on 5th August 1986.

Overview of the college:

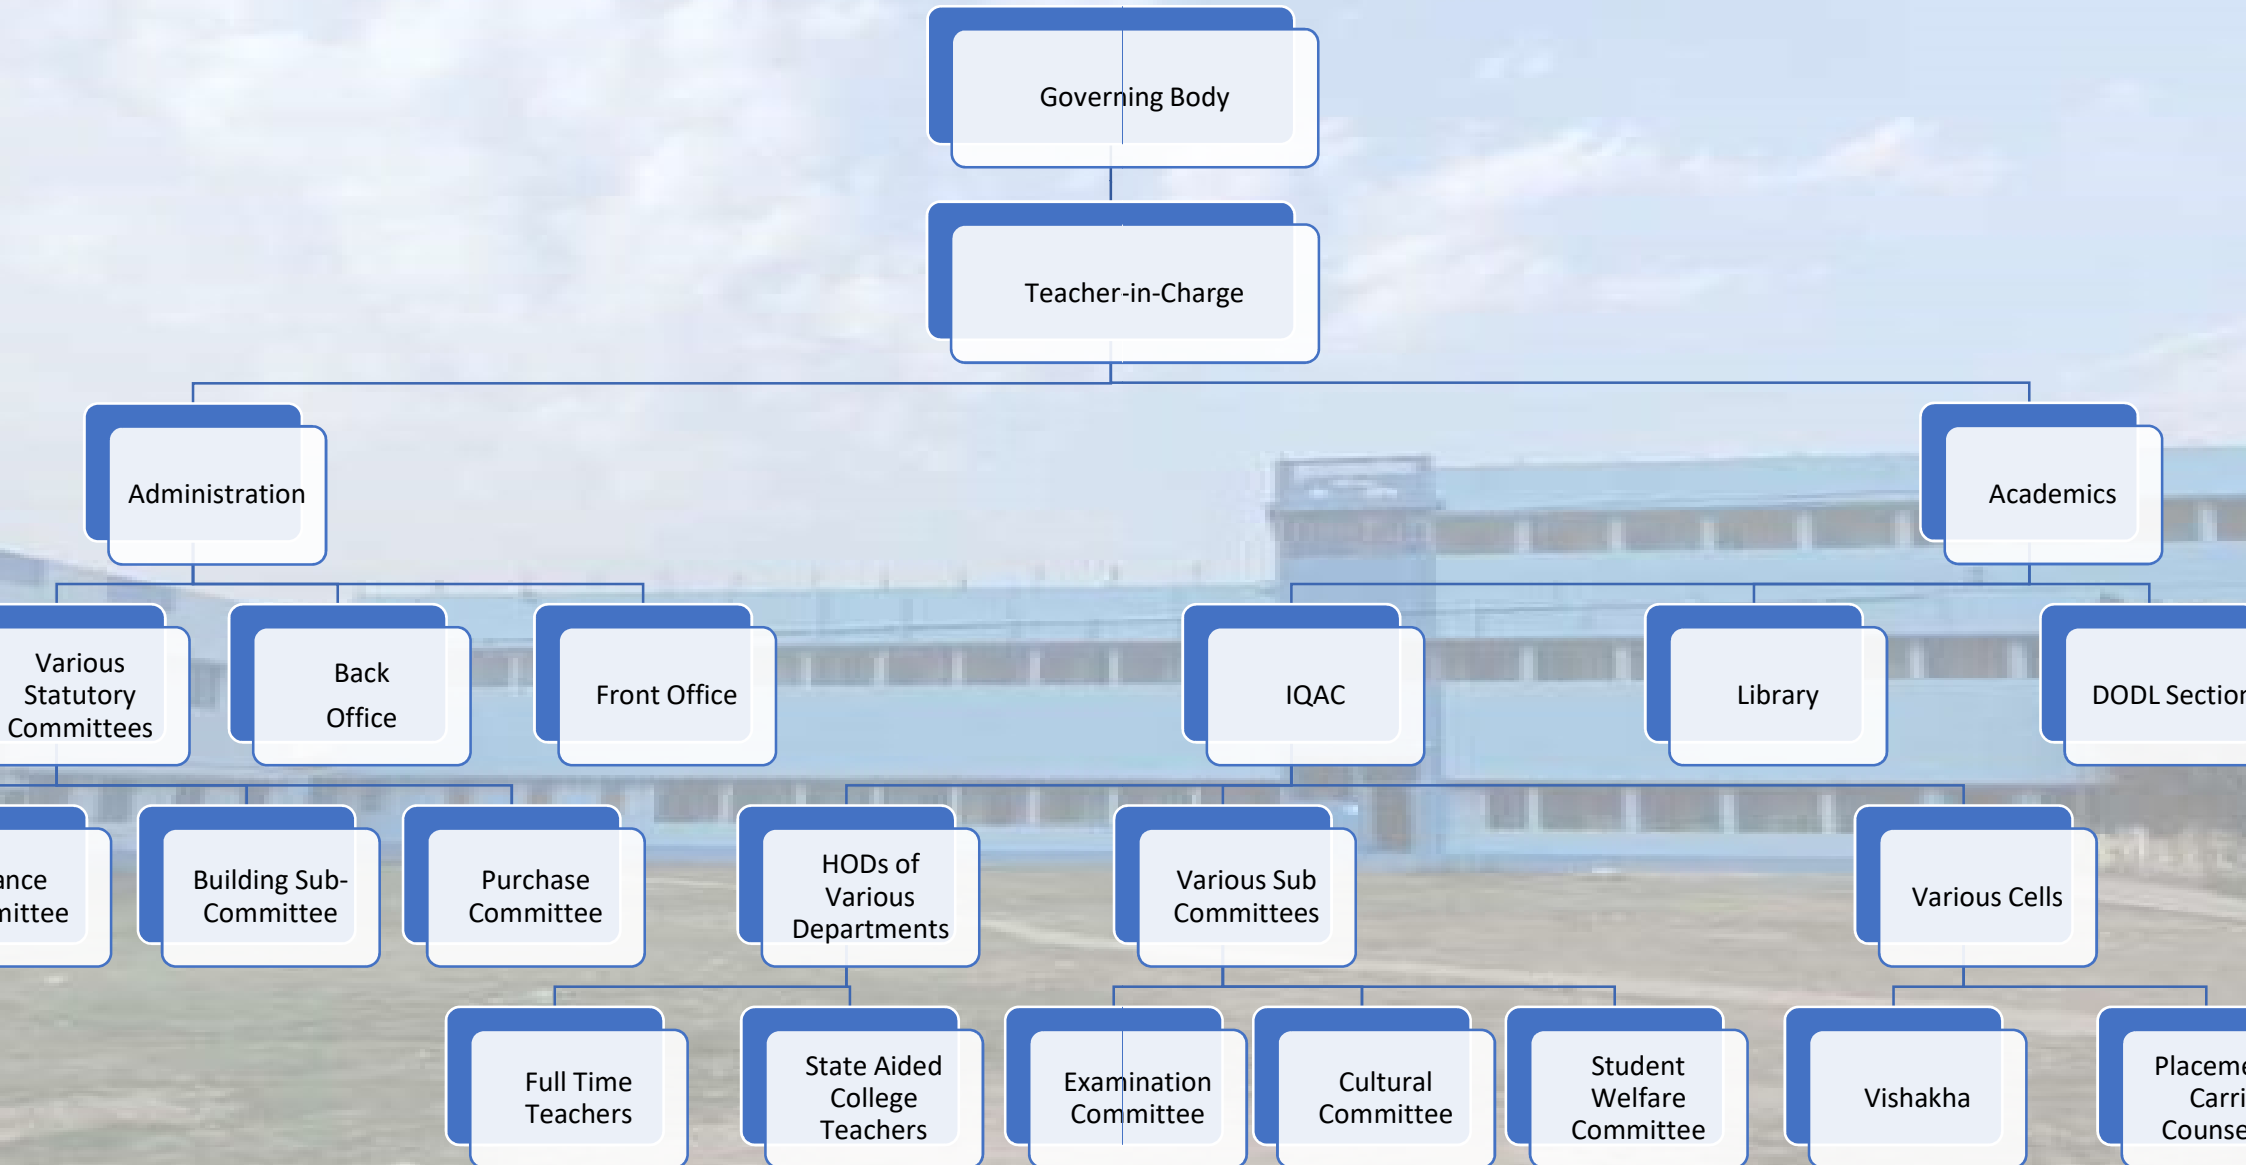

Muzaffar Ahmed Mahavidyalaya, a co-educational Govt. Aided General Degree College established in 1986 (5th August, 1986) situated at Salar at a stone-throw distance from Salar Railway Station in the district of Murshidabad amid scenic beauties and op atmosphere. Salar is geographically situated at the border area of Purba Bardhaman & Murshidabad districts. Salar is well connect by rail line and roads.

The college offers Honors/Major in almost all subjects of Arts Stream including Geography and Arabic.

There is, in front of the college, a pond full of water surrounded by green mango trees under the shade of which permanent sitting arrangements are there for the students to pass their light moments. The surrounding areas of Salar as a whole really deserve admiration for long past for its cultural heritage, com-munal harmony, academic and social uplifting aspirations. Since the very inception of the college, it has been providing higher education to the students, especially to those belonging to middle and lower middle class of its vast feeding areas, meeting their long-cherished demands for this education in promoting all-round academic upliftment and social mobility, strengthening harmony among different communities living peacefully side by side like the members of a family. It is very much apprising and inspiring to note on the part of the college that the students most of whom belong to lower economic strata of the society are obedient disciplined and their academic response conforms to the aims and objectives of the college to the fullest satisfaction.

The college is developing by leaps and bounds. There are some infrastructural deficiencies from which the college was suffering has almost been mitigated for full-fledged academic interest.
